Chairman Clayton, of the Judiciary Committee, under an agreement with Minority Leader Mann, called up the resolution which his committee recommended should be tabled because the Attorney-General already had furnished the papers.

Representative byrne, of Tennessee, a Democrat, objected, saying the Republicans only intended to embarrass the administration.

Mr. Mann immediately retalized by selection of the Senator of his co-operation.

The argument was settled by an agreement for four hours' debate next Friday, when Mr. Kahn will attack the course of Attorney-General McRey-
